Sarah Eccleston, a Central Pennsylvania native and Civil War nurse, spent much of her adult life in 19th century Argentina establishing programs to train kindergarten teachers. Sidney Dreese, college archivist, and Karen Jogan, Ph.D., professor of Spanish, describe their search for Sarah’s legacy in Argentina.

Refreshments will be served • Experience Event